MARCUS CENTER ANNOUNCES
REVISED DATES FOR
BILLY ELLIOT THE MUSICAL
JULY 17 – 22, 2012

MILWAUKEE, WI (August 30, 2011) – The Marcus Center, as part of Time Warner Cable Broadway at the Marcus Center Series, and Broadway Across America-Milwaukee have announced revised dates for the production of Billy Elliot the Musical, which will play an eight show run July 17 – 22, 2012.

Billy Elliot the Musical is a joyous celebration of one young boy's journey to make his dreams come true based on the smash-hit independent film of the same name with music by the legendary Elton John. Set in a small town, the story follows Billy as he stumbles out of the boxing ring and into a ballet class, discovering a surprising passion that inspires his family and his whole community. On Broadway, the show won ten 2009 Tony® Awards including Best Musical and won praise from fans and critics alike, including Ben Brantley of The New York Times who called Billy Elliot, "the most inspiring show I've seen in years."

The Time Warner Cable Broadway at the Marcus Center Series Season Ticket Holders and group clients will be notified with the rescheduled dates via email as it affects them. Season Ticket Holders will receive their tickets for Billy Elliot the Musical at a later date.

Tickets continue to be available as part of the 2011/12 Time Warner Cable Broadway at the Marcus Center Series Season Ticket Package. For information on Season Tickets Packages, please visit marcuscenter.org or the Marcus Center Box Office in person at 929 North Water Street Downtown, Milwaukee or by phone at (414) 273-2787. Groups of 10 or more can reserve tickets for Billy Elliot the Musical now by calling (414) 273-7121 ext. 210.

ABOUT THE MARCUS CENTER FOR THE PERFORMING ARTS
