Marcus Center Presents New Program KidZ Days In the City

MILWAUKEE, WI (June 21, 2011) – The Marcus Center for the Performing Arts is announcing a new program called KidZ Days in the City. In addition to the Marcus Center's KidZ Days At the Center, the new educational and interactive arts program, KidZ Days In the City, will take place throughout various community based organizations in Milwaukee.

In partnership with Children's Health Education Center, Milwaukee Ballet, The Florentine Opera Company, Discovery World, First Stage and more we will be offering this free community outreach programming throughout the summer months. KidZ Days In the City is generously sponsored by Forest County Potawatomi Community Foundation, Brewer's Community Foundation, and April Calvert & Cathy Seasholes.

Events, performances and times are subject to change. For more information about specific events please visit MarcusCenter.org.
